YMCA IMPACT BASKETBALL AND CHEERLEADING

Formerly Upwards

Same great program format, meant to develop the best in every child, while sharing Christ's love with them.

When kids play basketball they get more than just exercise. Besides being physically healthier, they have higher self-esteem and a healthier body image. The benefits of playing basketball goes far beyond the physical. Kids who play perform better in school, develop better interpersonal skills, and work better in groups. They are more resilient against life's challenges and less likely to ever abuse drugs or alcohol.
